Advanced A (C1) Online

Course Information

Our approach

This course integrates speaking, writing, listening and reading skills using a 'communicative approach', as well as grammar analysis and practice. The focus of the course is for you to communicate successfully with others in a business context; this means that error correction takes place at certain points in the lesson, not necessarily every time a mistake is made.

Materials

The student's book used for this course is Business Partner C1 and the topics you will cover are:

Unit 1: Innovation

Unit 2: Life Cycle

Unit 3: Finance and Investment

What will you be able to by the end of the course?

This course aims to help you to be able to do the following things more confidently and using appropriate language. Your teacher will encourage you to self-assess your ability throughout the course.

I can discuss different types of innovative thinking and understand the use of articles (a/an/the) in a text
I can use persuasive techniques and opening and closing strategies to deliver effective presentations
I can use complex structures and vocabulary to describe product life cycles and circular economies
I can overcome communication difficulties by reformulating my ideas and clarifying points
I can effectively present a proposal in a meeting and lead a discussion to agree on a course of action
I can use a range of future structures and vocabulary to talk about financial planning and the impact of investments
I can challenge ideas and use questions effectively to negotiate successfully
I can write an executive summary for a report

Assessment and Self-Study

Your teacher will give you 1 assessed speaking task and 1 writing task over the course and will give you written feedback on your performance.

Additionally, you will use the workbook for work in class and at home. The book is only one part of your course – you will also use activities, multi-media resources and other materials which will help you learn.
