

Business English

Intermediate B (B1) Online

Course Information

Our approach

This course integrates speaking, writing, listening and reading skills using a 'communicative approach', as well as grammar analysis and practice. The focus of the course is for you to communicate successfully with others in a business context; this means that error correction takes place at certain points in the lesson, not necessarily every time a mistake is made.

Materials

The student's book used for this course is Business Partner B1 and the topics you will cover are:

Unit 4: Global Markets

Unit 5: Design and Innovation

Unit 6: Safety and Security

What will you be able to by the end of the course?

This course aims to help you to be able to do the following things more confidently and using appropriate language. Your teacher will encourage you to self-assess your ability throughout the course.

I can talk about global markets using a range of vocabulary and passive structures
I can manage the direction of a discussion and use appropriate strategies to build agreement
I can evaluate and make suggestions for product innovation using a range of vocabulary and present perfect structures
I can use questions effectively to get feedback , information and confirmation
I can present the features and benefits of a product
I can talk about rules and regulations in the workplace
I can apply strategies for conflict resolution during negotiations
I can summarise information to write simple workplace guidelines

Assessment and Self-Study

Your teacher will give you 1 assessed speaking task and 1 writing task over the course and will give you written feedback on your performance.

Additionally, you will use the workbook for work in class and at home. The book is only one part of your course – you will also use activities, multi-media resources and other materials which will help you learn.

What is a B1 user of English?

According to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR), a B1 user can:

- understand the main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school and leisure, and the main point of radio or TV programmes on current affairs or topics of personal or professional interest when the delivery is relatively slow and clear.
- understand written texts that consist mainly of high frequency every day or job-related language and write simple connected text on familiar topics.
- deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken and enter unprepared into conversation on familiar topics.
