

Business English

Upper Intermediate B (B2) Online

Course Information

Our approach

This course integrates speaking, writing, listening and reading skills using a 'communicative approach', as well as grammar analysis and practice. The focus of the course is for you to communicate successfully with others in a business context; this means that error correction takes place at certain points in the lesson, not necessarily every time a mistake is made.

Materials

The student's book used for this course is Business Partner B2 and the topics you will cover are:

Unit 4: Digital Business

Unit 5: Performance

Unit 6: Ethics

What will you be able to by the end of the course?

This course aims to help you to be able to do the following things more confidently and using appropriate language. Your teacher will encourage you to self-assess your ability throughout the course.

I can talk about the impact of innovative technologies using conditional structures
I can handle challenging communication styles and successfully complete a negotiation
I can use complex structures to contrast different approaches to performance and rewards
I can deliver and respond to challenging feedback
I can reflect on and present the successes and failures of a project
I can assess the ethics of a company using appropriate vocabulary and third conditional structures
I can effectively sell a product or service and use a range of language to address concerns
I can use a range of tenses to present information in an internal company newsletter

Assessment and Self-Study

Your teacher will give you 1 assessed speaking task and 1 writing task over the course and will give you written feedback on your performance.

Additionally, you will use the workbook for work in class and at home. The book is only one part of your course – you will also use activities, multi-media resources and other materials which will help you learn.

What is a B2 user of English?

According to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR), a B2 user can:

- understand the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in his/her field of specialisation
- interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party
- produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options
